

Sound and Ceramics : Making music from clay

IOE18 008

16 seats

Ahmedabad Campus

COURSE FACULTY

Thomas
Louis

India

bananapottery@gmail.com

Current Affiliation: Chief Potter at Banana Pottery

Experience : Banana pottery does mostly handmade & wheel thrown ceramics & pottery. Their projects include murals for museums , tableware for homes & restaurants, lighting , speakers , musical instruments & sculptural work.

OVERVIEW

KEYWORDS : Ceramics, Sound, Music instruments

Dabbling and experimenting with different types of percussion instruments in clay and making purely ceramic musical instruments

Initially look at the ancient and traditional instruments from different parts of the world and take off from there.

OBJECTIVE

Multidisciplinary approach to making ceramic instruments with the addition of other materials like leather, wood, textile, bamboo etc.

Develop a understanding of what kind of sound is produced by different instruments.

METHODOLOGY

Studying ancient and traditional instruments from different parts of the world.

Demonstrations of various clay instruments. Explorations of different kinds of sounds using clay.

FINAL DELIVERABLES

Ceramic musical instruments with a performance