

Mughlai Wrap : A music video

IOE18 009

15 seats

Ahmedabad Campus

COURSE FACULTY

Arun Gupta

India

guptarun@nid.edu

Current Affiliation : Principal
Faculty and Discipline Lead, FVC, NID

Education : Post-graduate diploma in Film Direction, FTII; and a BA in English Literature from the University of Delhi.

Prahlad Gopakumar

India

Current Affiliation : Faculty,
FVC, NID

OVERVIEW

KEYWORDS : Music, Mughal history, Song production

Turco-Mongol in ethnic origins, brought with them rich traditions in art and architecture, language and cuisine, music and costumes.

As a result there arose a syncretic Mughlai flavor in various facets of everyday Indian life. The workshop will expose the participants to this rich heritage, culminating in a hip-hop/rap music video celebration of the same.

OBJECTIVE

Study the Mughals- their social/cultural impact.
Expose the participants to the wealth of syncretic heritage. Re-assert its benign and pluralistic effect on contemporary Indian society and culture.

METHODOLOGY

Lectures, readings, films, presentations, etc.
Writing and recording a 3-5 minutes rap/hip hop song. Making a 3-5 minutes music video using the rap/hip hop song generated earlier.

FINAL DELIVERABLES

A 3-5 minutes hip-hop/rap original music video