

INSTRUCTOR

SONAL CHAUHAN

National Institute of Design, Gandhinagar

Ms. Sonal Chauhan is an Associate Senior Designer and Discipline Lead in the Apparel Design program at the NID,, Gandhinagar. She has extensive work experience in areas such as the apparel industry,, crafts,, and academics. She enjoys working with Indian Textiles and Crafts; believes in and practices Sustainable Design.

<https://www.nid.edu/people/detail/sonal-chauhan>

CO - INSTRUCTOR

ANSHUL JUNEJA

Self employed

Ms. Anshul Juneja, is a Fashion and Design Professional and a Design educator. With a career spanning 20 years, she has a varied experience in Design education, Garment export sector and Handicraft sector. She enjoys working with children and has conducted many art activity workshops with them. She loves to travel.

OVERVIEW

To introduce the participants to the handcrafted narrative applique technique of Santhalpur,, Gujarat which is borrowed from South American textile art 'Arpilleras' To create the playful and individual artworks using traditional technique of applique,, playing with color,, form and compositions,, with textiles as a core material. The narratives could be personal,, traditional,, contemporary or fun and quirky.

OBJECTIVE

To explore narrative building and story telling . To learn traditional technique of 'applique'. To come up with original artwork using the technique and narrative building skills.

METHODOLOGY

Lecture
Presentation
Demonstration by master artisan
Explorations and story telling.

KEYWORDS

Storytelling, playful, handcrafted, textiles, art expression.

WORKSHOP MODE

Online

February 14 - 25, 2022
openelective.nid.edu