

OE23D09

RIVER ISLAND REVELATIONS: A CULTURAL EXPEDITION

INSTRUCTOR

DIGANGANA MEDHI (MC)

Rural, livelihood, women land rights, farmer producer company, development and upliftment professional, currently working with the Flood affected Missing tribe of Majuli Assam since 2017

OVERVIEW

This immersive workshop will introduce participants to the Mising Tribe on River Island Majuli, Assam. They will engage in hands-on experiences, constructing flood-resistant Stilt House structures and delving into the tribe's lifestyle. Wearing traditional attire, savouring authentic Mising cuisine, and swaying to tribal melodies, attendees will partake in a multi-sensory journey. These encounters will deepen their understanding of the tribe's heritage and sustainable traditions, fostering profound appreciation. In just one workshop, participants will gain unique insights into the Missing Tribe's resilient lifestyle, including its music, attire, and culinary delights, creating a memorable and enlightening experience.

KEY WORDS

River, Island, Architecture, Culture

AVAILABILITY

10 Seats

CO- INSTRUCTOR

AKSHAY CHANDEKAR

Qualified Architect, Industrial Designer (furniture), Craft Educator/Trainer and a Maker with 6+ years product development experience in the industry of Panel wood Craft, Wood, Steel and Natural Material Crafts from NE India.